Shellee Leif (pronounced “Life”) lives in St. Paul, MN with her husband, Larry. They have a daughter and son-in-law and three grandsons living in Tarpon Springs, FL. Shellee was trained in spiritual direction by the Our Lady of Divine Providence School of Spiritual Direction in Clearwater, FL. She also has a Master of the Arts degree in Pastoral Ministry from the St. Paul Seminary in St. Paul, MN. She has worked in several capacities as Customer Assistance Manager, Business Analyst, Administrative Assistant for the Institute for Diaconate Formation and Archbishop Flynn Catechetical Institute, and now is a full-time Spiritual Director. She has been active in several ministries within the Archdiocese primarily with adult faith formation and prayer ministry. She helped initiate the Women’s Christians in Commerce chapter in St. Paul, is a trained teacher and interviewer for the Called & Gifted Spiritual Gifts Inventory, teaches St. Ignatius of Loyola’s Rules for Discernment of Spirits, and leads people through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius.
