

Who Do You Say that I Am?

Join us for a presentation on

The Shroud of Turin

The Shroud of Turin is a centuries old linen cloth that bears the image of a scourged, beaten and crucified man. A man that millions believe to be Jesus of Nazareth. Is it really the cloth that wrapped His crucified body, or is it a medieval forgery, a hoax perpetrated by some clever artist? Modern science has completed hundreds of thousands of hours of intense research on the Shroud. It is, in fact, the single most studied artifact in human history. We now know more about it than ever before.

Come and join us with Tony Chernaiwski, of Lansing, MI who has studied the Shroud for over 30 years and has been featured on Good Shepherd Catholic Radio.
